

The Word on The Street

We place a premium on consistently delivering personalized, knowledgeable and effective service to all of our clients. The Harrison Team goal is to create clients for life. From what our clients are saying about working with us, we are well on our way to achieving that objective.

Purchasing a multi-unit building in San Francisco can be daunting, but for a first-time homebuyer, it can be downright scary. At least that was my feeling prior to meeting Linda. Once we began working together, Linda displayed a level of professionalism and knowledge that put my mind at ease and let me know that I had a partner I could rely on every step of the way. Her amazing attitude, breadth of knowledge of the intricacies of San Francisco real estate and her professionalism every step of the way were nothing but impressive.

I would like to stress again how much we value everything you and your team has done for us! The level of competency and honesty you demonstrated in the past lead us to refer you to our closest friends. And I think I speak for all of us when I say that in the real estate battlefield it's best to have you on our side.

Linda and her team were supportive, responsive and always available. They exceeded our expectations by managing to close on the purchase of our house in Piedmont and the sale of our condo in San Francisco with amazing speed! They went above-and-beyond the call of duty by helping us move into our new home while we were away. We could not have done it without The Harrison Team behind us.

We were the type of clients that would try any Realtor's patience since we were moving from Boston to San Francisco. We interviewed four top producing real estate agents over the phone and settled on Linda Harrison. From the very beginning, we were delighted with our choice.

Linda isn't just a nice person with patience. She is a strategist. Her goal was to find us as close to perfect home for the best possible price. Throughout the negotiations, Linda played a critical advisory role. She suggested a strong series of strategic moves that helped us get the best price possible. When we got frustrated, she held the deal together with advice and humor, and reminded us of the goal.

Linda did not stop once we finalized the deal. Being new to the area, we relied on her for names of locksmiths, insurance agents, doctors and more. She will even be reviewing our plans for a new kitchen, helping us spend our money the right way for resale purposes.

I love your enthusiasm, support and good humor! You made this process as easy as it could be and I am amazed at the timing. Three cheers and thanks. I'm thrilled with all that you have done for me.

You two are truly a class act, and our transaction was my favorite of the year! Thanks again for your thoughtfulness, and I hope we'll have the chance to do at least one deal this year.

For any inherently desirable property, demand will always outstrip supply in San Francisco, so I have no real concerns about buying before selling my current property, especially when working with The Harrison Team. They helped me buy my first condo three years ago, and are now helping me upsize to a single family home. They are fantastic!
