Frameline Board President Linda Harrison to Deliver Opening Remarks
June 14 Will Launch San Francisco International LGBT Film Festival 31

San Francisco, CA – June 5, 2007 – Linda Harrison knows how to kick-off an international film festival. As president of the board of directors of Frameline, the only nonprofit in the country dedicated to funding, exhibition, distribution and promotion of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) media arts, she will deliver the opening remarks on June 14 at The Castro Theatre before a crowd of thousands. Her words will officially launch the annual San Francisco International LGBT Film Festival 31 that runs from June 14 through 24.

“The festival produced by Frameline is the culmination of our work and efforts to offer opportunities for all LGBT filmmakers by providing a forum that brings together great film and the community,” said Harrison, Vice President and Branch Manager at Pacific Union GMAC Real Estate, Opera Plaza location. “I look forward to this entertaining event every year.”

Celebrating its 31st year, the 2007 festival will screen more than 200 films in 10 days. Filmmakers from 25 countries have submitted work; San Francisco alone has 41 local filmmakers participating in the event. The films are screened in four different venues:

- The Castro Theatre, 429 Castro Street, San Francisco
- Roxie Film Center, 3117 16th Street, San Francisco
- Victoria Theatre, 2961 16th Street, San Francisco
- Parkway Theater, 1834 Park Boulevard, Oakland

Founded in 1981, Frameline’s mission is to strengthen the diverse LGBT community and further its visibility by supporting and promoting a broad array of cultural representations and artistic expression in film, video and other media arts. Harrison has been involved with the organization for several years, before becoming president of the board in 2007.

With her partner Ellen Anderson, a civic-minded top producer at Pacific Union, Harrison launched The Harrison Team before becoming a VP for the leading real estate firm earlier this year. The Team specializes in San Francisco luxury homes and investment properties throughout the world, offering a full array of real estate services and investment strategies designed to compliment client portfolios for the long term. Together, the Anderson and Harrison work hard to educate and assist clients through the often challenging and complicated real estate process.
