Linda Harrison Takes Second Term as 2008 President of Frameline Board
*Nonprofit Thrives Under Leadership of Pacific Union GMAC Real Estate Pro

San Francisco, CA – November 14, 2007 – One year was not enough to accomplish her ambitious goals for Frameline, the only nonprofit in the country dedicated to funding, exhibition, distribution and promotion of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) media arts. That's why Linda Harrison will continue to serve a second term as the 2008 president of the Board of Directors of this progressive, dynamic organization. Harrison and her partner Ellen Anderson are The Harrison Team, a top producing real estate pair in the luxury and investments marketplace at Pacific Union GMAC Real Estate.

"The first year just flew by. I'm looking forward to continuing my legacy to provide additional value, services and opportunities to aspiring LGBT filmmakers and artists," said Harrison. "As an organization, we have so many exciting opportunities ahead of us in 2008."

Harrison will lead Frameline as they prepare for the 32nd annual film festival in June. This year, AT&T has signed on as a major sponsor and will help fund the return of the popular tented pavilion at the Castro Theatre opening night block party.

In addition, Frameline is entering a new partnership with LogoTV, an interactive LA-based LGBT cable program that allows viewers to cast votes for favorite films, Academy Awards-style. Logo TV will air the lineup of Frameline films submitted for the festival, and viewers will be able to vote for their favorites.

Founded in 1981, Frameline's mission is to strengthen the diverse LGBT community and further its visibility by supporting and promoting a broad array of cultural representations and artistic expression in film, video and other media arts. Harrison and Anderson are film enthusiasts and long-time supporters of the Frameline organization and events.

As president of the board, Harrison intends to continue enhancing Frameline's programs and services to empower LGBT artists and filmmakers. These include:

- San Francisco International LGBT Film Festival – With annual attendance of nearly 70,000, the Festival is the longest-running, largest and most widely recognized LGBT film exhibition event in the world.
- Frameline Distribution – The only educational distributor solely dedicated to LGBT film and video. Frameline's collection of more than 200 films is the preeminent LGBT media resource for educators, librarians, film festivals and community groups, and serves as an important bridge between independent filmmakers and their audiences.
- Filmmaker Support – Since 1990, nearly 100 films and videos have been completed with assistance from the Frameline Film and Video Completion Fund. In 2007, Frameline will grant a total of $40,000 in Completion Fund Awards. Awards are made annually and provide much needed support to filmmakers for their final editing and lab work. Frameline also supports filmmakers with the largest cash awards of any LGBT film festival in the world: the $10,000 First Feature Award, the $10,000 Best Documentary Award and three $2,500 audience choice awards.
